CHAPEL CHARITIES

This term and next, collections (cash and card) will be taken at Sunday Choral Evensongs to support the work of Abbey People, The Children’s Society, Red Hen and Lyn’s House. Abbey People are a community charity supporting residents in one of the most deprived parts of Cambridge. The Children’s Society provide specialist support to empower young people facing serious life challenges and mental health issues. Red Hen works with local primary schools and their families to overcome barriers to learning, as well as outreach workshops, events and activities. Lyn’s House is a Cambridge-based community which provides a space for life-enhancing friendship amongst people with and without learning disabilities.

FINDING HAPPINESS

Wednesdays from 19th January, 6.15pm, D1

In Finding Happiness, Abbot Christopher Jamieson explores the ultimate question – what does it mean to be truly happy? – in eight pithy chapters. Jamieson questions past and contemporary conceptions of contentment through the lens of the seven 'deadly' sins and offers generous wisdom on the search for fulfilment. Join us for aperitifs, appetizers, and discussion, whether you've read it or not. For a free copy, contact Eleanor, the Assistant Chaplain (e.lancelot@jesus.cam.ac.uk).

COLLEGE TRIP

Saturday 29th January, 10.00am

Come and explore the work of artist Kehinde Wiley on exhibition at the National Gallery, London. Wiley's work reimagines the canon of European historical and religious art featuring people of colour, and explores questions of power, privilege and identity. Book your space by emailing chapel@jesus.cam.ac.uk.

THE CHAPEL

Jesus College Chapel has for nine centuries been a place of quiet and contemplation, and it is open to all members of the College community. The clergy are available to all members of the College – of any faith or none – as pastoral advisers; they can also offer information about other faith groups. Contact the Dean of Chapel if you are willing to read lessons, lead intercessions, or help in other ways with services in Chapel. Enquiries regarding the use of the Chapel may be directed to the Secretary to the Dean, at chapel@jesus.cam.ac.uk.

THE CHOIRS

Jesus College has a long and rich tradition of church music, and is distinctive in maintaining two choirs. The College Choir, consisting mostly of students, has a female soprano line whereas the Chapel Choir admits boy trebles from around the city of Cambridge. The lower voices are common to both choirs. Enquiries regarding the choirs may be directed to the Choir and Chapel Office Coordinator, at choir@jesus.cam.ac.uk. Alternatively you may wish to visit jesuscollegechoir.com.
